

Government makes good on $25,000 pledge

The Stephan Hopkins Foundation took one big step towards its fundraising goal for new side-scan sonar search and rescue equipment with a $25,000 donation from the provincial government in July. The cheque was formally presented earlier this week. From left, are, MHA Darryl Kelly, Municipal Affairs Minister Dave Denine, Stephan's father, Major Terry Hopkins, and foundation chairperson Junior Pinksen.

— Star Photo by Ashley Fitzpatrick